

Nov. 19, 2000

Shaloo, Providence Sneak Past Niagara

Compiled by USCHO Staff

PROVIDENCE, R.I. — Freshman Gayle Shaloo netted a goal and an assist Sunday as Providence defeated Niagara, 3-1.

Providence got on the scoreboard first when junior forward Jackie Tamsin scored on a pass from Shaloo from behind the net at 12:17 of the third period.

Freshman defenseman Meredith Roth added a power-play goal at 15:01 when she scored on a rebound from a Darlene Stephenson for what proved to be the game-winning goal.

Niagara reduced PC's lead to 2-1 at the 15:50 mark when sophomore Valerie Hall beat Friar junior goaltender Crystal Nicholas. Providence added an insurance goal at 18:58 as Shaloo scored.

In goal, Nicholas posted a game-high 36 saves to lead the Friars to their fifth victory of the season. ■

Reprinted from USCHO.com — The Online Sports Community
Copyright ©2000 USCHO.com —. All rights reserved.