Jenn Butsch and Rush Zimmerman named to USA Women's Under-22 Select Team.

Aug. 14, 2002

PROVIDENCE, R.I. -- It was announced on Sunday, August 11 that three players on the current Providence College women's hockey team and three former Friars were selected to the USA Hockey Women's Festival which will be held on August 13-19 in Lake Placid, N.Y. The six players are senior forward Jenn Butsch (Berlin, Vt.), junior defenseman Meredith Roth (Dubuque, Iowa) sophomore forward Rush Zimmerman (Grosse Pointe, Mich.), Alana Blahoski (St. Paul, Minn.) '96, Jessica Tabb (Holland, Mass.) '01, and Gayle Shaloo (Scottsdale, Ariz.).

Butsch and Zimmerman were named to the U.S. Women's Under-22 Select Team, which will play three exhibition games against Canada on August 21-24 at the Olympic Center in Lake Placid, N.Y. Butsch led all Friars in scoring during the 2001-02 season with 31 points (16 goals, 15 assists) as Providence captured its seventh ECAC Tournament title. Zimmerman finished fifth on the team in scoring last season as a freshman with 22 points (10 goals, 12 assists).

In all 62 athletes were selected to the Festival. The 62 players were separated into three teams (Blue, Red and White) with the Blue Team representing the Under-22 Select Team. They will take part in daily practices and compete in a round-robin tournament at the Olympic Center. Roth, who finished with 18 points (seven goals, 11 assists) last season, is the lone PC representative on the White Team, while Blahoski, Shaloo and Tabb will play for the Red Team.
